Description

The Food Preparation Board is a kitchen aid for those with limited hand use. The Food Preparation Board is held in place by its curved lip resting against the work surface and with integrated non-slip feet. The rear upstand holds bread steady while cutting or buttering. Easily washable.

- A food preparation board for those with limited hand use. The board is held in place by its curved lip resting against the work surface and by its non-slip feet.
- The rear lips of the board prevent bread or other foods slipping off and aid those with less able fingers to pick it up.
- It creates a stable preparation surface for spreading with one hand.
- Hygienic wipe clean plastic.
